

Port Writers Writing Wit Wisdom

For more information about Port Writers Inc. visit:

www.portwriters.com.au

Next Coffee & Chat: at the Sea Acres Rainforest Café, Pacific Drive 12 June.

Checkout the current writing competitions

<http://www.competitionsforwriters.com/>

May gathering: Frank will be running the show with Rita's help because Allan and Kerry are out of town

SAVE THE DATES:

Wendy is organising a Murder Mystery Evening: with a Wild West Theme/ dressing up in character is OPTIONAL- 10 places available on Friday 12th July commencing at 5:30 pm at Wendy & Steve's place.

If too many members respond we will have to do a draw. If you have a partner or spouse who wishes to come they must be willing to participate in the game.

Attendees will be asked to bring a plate of food and their preferred beverage.

Please respond from 1st June only (Wendy is out of town) to wendy.haynes24@gmail.com

ANTHOLOGY 2020

ANTHOLOGY 2020 SUBMISSIONS Thank you to members who have submitted works (both published and unpublished) to our Anthology. Send to portwritersinc@gmail.com

SUBJECT LINE: ANTHOLOGY SUBMISSION

Remember, the 2019 In-house COMPETITION (unpublished work only) is OPEN until 25 May – we need your entries.

Send to portwritersinc@gmail.com

SUBJECT LINE: 2019 IN-HOUSE COMPETITION

Please send all Apologies to Allan Pogonowski so he can enter them on the sign-in sheet each month
allan.pog@gmail.com

Membership:

Joining fee $10

Annual membership $25

Meeting entry for members: $5

Port Writers Inc

BSB 112-879

Account 48707 7754

Please include a short description when doing a direct debit

Why I write #21

I read Tolstoy and thought I could never write like that. Then I thought – why not?

Allan Pogonowski

Presenters

If you would like to share your knowledge with other members by way of a presentation, a writing activity or perhaps lead a discussion on a writing topic, please let Wendy know.

Compiled by Allan Pogonowski

